Our Mission

Renewing lives and growing disciples of Christ

Sunday 11th November

Today we remember the official end of World War 1 exactly 100 years ago. This "war to end all wars" was characterized by a huge amount of suffering. Many people, not only those in the military, but also their families left at home, made great sacrifices. More than 60,000 Australians gave their lives on the battle field.

Our gospel reading today tells of a poor widow who gave all her money to honour her God.

This story was told to illustrate that the Son of God sacrificed all he had, including his life, so that we may find the true path to peace.

David

Our Vision
A family of Jesus Christ's disciples, empowered by His love, obedient to His commands and seeking to be like Christ to others.
